Small Group Adventures

WELCOME TO ATA

Adventure Tours Australia (also known as ATA), is all about sustainable, experience-rich travel, tapping into everything that's great about this unique island continent.

We work in partnership with Australia's true locals – its Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples – and do our part to preserve this incredible landscape, striving to leave the environment in a better condition than we found it.

This brochure features 9 of our favourite tours, covering all the highlights across this great and diverse country. From the aptly-named Coral Coast to the Red Centre, and the sun-drenched East Coast to perhaps our best-kept secret, the island of Tasmania, these are the trips that hold a special place in the hearts of travellers and our incredible local Australian guides.

We're here to make sure every moment counts.

In Australia, the possibilities are endless. And with our wide variety of tours – everything from two-day getaways to epic multi-trip adventures – you can experience as much of this great southern land as you like. These are some of our favourites.

WHY TRAVEL

with Adventure Tours Australia?

Informative and immersive, our tours are for those looking to develop a true-blue understanding of Australia's inner workings and have a great time while they're at it. Take one comfy 4WD or minibus, add a knowledgeable local guide (or two) and a bunch of fellow adventurers and you're all set for the Outback. Forget your standard charter bus tour, these are quintessential Aussie road trips – you'll just have someone looking after the driving and navigating for you.

A photograph of a young couple sitting in a field of tall grass at sunset. The woman is on the left, wearing a pink tank top, and the man is on the right, wearing a khaki shirt. They are both smiling and looking towards the camera. The background shows a vast, flat landscape under a warm, orange sky.

5 reasons why

Expert guides

Our guides are an enthusiastic and informed bunch who get a real kick out of showing you around and sharing what they love about their country. On top of that, they all have comprehensive training in first aid, driving, environmental awareness, local history and geology, so you're always in good hands.

First Nations experiences

We work closely with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities on many of our trips to ensure your journey is filled with authentic experiences. With their guidance, our tours visit places of cultural significance, provide a deeper understanding of the land and what it means to its Traditional Owners, and inspire an appreciation of the world's oldest living culture.

Supporting communities

We're big believers that travel should benefit the places it touches. That's why we use experienced local guides, stay in locally run accommodation and eat at local restaurants whenever possible. This means you're not only getting an authentic experience, you're also supporting the communities you visit.

Exclusive accommodation

Unique and exclusive accommodation is all part of the ATA experience. Whether you're staying in private wilderness camps in the Top End, at remote & exclusive bush camps or at a safari camp in Karijini National Park, all of our accommodation ensures an unforgettable and immersive adventure.

Our vehicles

Our range of vehicles (fleet) have to be adaptable to Australia's diverse range of landscapes and terrain. So whether it's a truck with comfortable coach-like seats suitable for the long distances across the outback, or a four-wheel-drive (4WD) to reach those remote yet beautiful attractions; our range of vehicles allows you to experience the very best of what this big country has to offer.

CULTURAL EXPERIENCES

With a history spanning some 60,000 years, Australia's Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples have the world's oldest continuous cultures – and an appreciation of their traditions is central to understanding present-day Australia. By working in partnership with First Nations communities, our tours are able to visit sites of cultural significance, educate travellers about the land and what it means to its Traditional Custodians, and do so with the respect each site deserves.

Partners from coast to Red Centre

Pudakul Cultural Experience

Pudakul Aboriginal Cultural Tours begin with a traditional Cul Cul, or 'Welcome to Country', from the Traditional Owners of the land, the Limilngan-Wulna people. Gain insight into local Aboriginal culture through interactive experiences such as bush tucker talks and spear throwing.

Maruku Arts

Nearly 700 artists make up the collective arts hub Maruku, which is owned and operated by the Anangu people from the Western and Central Deserts of Australia. Maruku aims to keep the Anangu culture alive through art and also make their culture accessible with tours, painting and carving workshops, traditional ceremonies and art exhibitions.

Top End Day Tours

Run in collaboration with the Traditional Owners of Western Arnhem Land, Top End Day Tours are a journey into the heart of this region's beautiful wilderness. Join a Binninj guide to hear stories with strong connections to the landscapes. These tours offer cultural immersion in a spectacular setting.

WHERE WE STAY

Downtime is an important part of how you experience a destination, which is why we use unique and exclusive accommodation that immerses you in a location and brings you closer to the bush. It could mean staying at remote, exclusive bush camps, a secluded lakeside lodge in Tasmania, or at a safari camp off the Kimberley coast. No matter the place, all of our accommodation is hand-picked for its quality, amenities and location.

Swag Camping

We get it... you want big-time experiences without a big-time price tag. That's why most of our trips come in a camping style. Depending on the region you're travelling in, this means staying in either shared permanent tents at established campsites or dorm-share accommodation. Regardless, a sleeping bag is required but if you don't have your own, don't sweat – you can purchase one from us in advance. Most campsites have power and some include the option of sleeping in an Aussie-style swag – because there's no better way to experience the Outback than spending the night outdoors, with the twinkling sky above and dusty red earth below.

Powered Tents

Since swags aren't necessarily for everyone, some of our trips come with an extra layer of comfort. Our powered tents come with cosy beds, linens, and powered outlets so you can use the light and a fan.
